Undefeated – The Three Seminole Wars (1817-1858) – NEW

The Seminole motto “undefeated” or “unconquered” refers to the fact that the Seminole tribe of Florida never formally surrendered to the United States and signed a peace treaty after the conclusion of the three Seminole Wars.

Their resistance was so fierce and effective that the U.S. government eventually ceased its military efforts to remove the remaining Seminoles from Florida. The Seminole Wars were the longest and costliest conflicts fought by the U.S. government against Native Americans.
